Footnotes

QUIET ON THE TEE settled early advanced on the backside, dueled three deep through the far turn wresting a short lead in the four path upper stretch, extending late angled out to the six slot holding on. VANEASTO raced evenly through the backside picking it up on the far turn, swung out seven wide in upper stretch surged gamely at the end. ROSA PANTERA tracked the pace through the far turn looming in the six path upper stretch, all out the final eight was going evenly at the end. UNLEADED slow early stayed back through the far turn, showed some life in the three path the final eighth moving best after the fact. GAGE PARK hustled out prompted the pace dueling through the far turn into upper stretch, extending along the rail weakened late. BOOYA SKEE DADDY slow early played no factor. ROYAL LORD lost ground wilting into upper stretch. SAY NEW YORK SANDY broke alertly setting the pace clinging to a short lead on the backside, dueling on the far turn would wear out near the rail in upper stretch. EL PATRONE raced evenly through the backside then folded up on the far turn.
