Footnotes

CHIEF WHITE FOX well placed sat patient through the backside, picked it up on the far turn bidding three deep in upper stretch drawing out in the two path. MEGIDDO broke alertly prompting a soft pace keeping a head in front through the far turn, engaged by CHIEF WHITE FOX in upper stretch quickly proved no match holding well to salvage place. BENBAD broke slowly trailing through the backside, swung out leaving the far turn mustering a mild response in the six path down the lane to best the others. DANCING LEAF broke alertly prompting the pace through the far turn then wilted in upper stretch. AHUEHUETE went evenly through the backside, faded from contention on the far turn. HOME ALARM was always outrun. PERFECT TRIANGLE stalked the pace staying close through the backside, wavered on the far turn giving way from the quarter pole.
