Footnotes

MEGA RUSH sent from the gate, dueled outside of CAPE HATCHET soon after the start, went head to head setting a blistering pace, finally edged clear in upper stretch, increased margin late to win in an impressive effort. CAPE HATCHET sent hard, dueled with MEGA RUSH vying thru a rapid pace, battled to mid stretch, slowly ceded but gamely saved second place late in a very hard effort. PRECIOUS DUKE stalked top pair from the start, raced in the four path at the quarter pole, loomed with a furlong to go, needed more late being outgamed for second place. DISCO INDY unhurried from the gate, moved out to travel mid track going down the backside, came five wide receiving left handed stick top of the stretch, narrowed the gap in deep stretch fighting for a minor award but needed a bit more. SAMURAI PRINCE settled early running off the rail, mildly bid top of the lane, leveled off inside the eighth pole. ON TOUR well placed early, split foes mid turn holding a menacing position, failed to sustain move and weakened at the eighth pole.
