Footnotes

PROVOST sent hard worked on a slim lead through the turn, dug in from the two path down the stretch finding more at the end. WEST COAST GREY stalked the pace edging closer to threaten on the turn, looming from mid track upper stretch would extend while angling in a bit to no avail. ROCKY BEAR hustled up early inside pressured the pace through the turn, extending along the rail upper stretch would wear down late. PARADISE PRINCE slow early was outrun through the turn, showed some life from the two path down the stretch improving position. GEORGE'S GOLD chased the pace through the turn then dropped off in upper stretch. RUNRICORUN raced evenly off the pace through the turn then gave way six wide in upper stretch. HAWKS LANDING was always outrun. FROG LEAP showed little.
