Footnotes

HARPERS LAND tracked the pace racing in hand from the three path, asked midway on the second turn, headed I COME FROM BEHIND near the quarter pole, matched strides to deep stretch, slowly drew clear late under aggressive urging. I COME FROM BEHIND prompted the pace from the start, went clear leaving the far turn but was soon headed by HARPERS LAND, fought hard running inside of that rival from top of the stretch, yielded grudgingly in deep stretch finishing second best. SOME KINDA TROUBLE settled along the rail under a hold, sat patient to the quarter pole, angled out four wide mounting bid, never menaced top pair but held third place late. AXEL SWAGGER raced up close running between foes, gave chase from mid turn, failed to threaten losing ground from upper stretch, lost the battle for third place. BACKTRACKEN set a pressured pace running along the inside, vied to the three eighths pole, was all done giving way entering the stretch, finished spent.
