Footnotes

KEEPING THE HONOR stalked SENOR RUTLEDGE from the start, bid four wide at the quarter pole, blew by entering the stretch, widened under strong left handed stick winning convincingly. SENOR RUTLEDGE see the pace running three wide, headed leaving the quarter pole, proved no match but was easily second best. BROAD STONE settled along the rail in mid pack, mildly bid at the quarter pole, chased to pair in the drive but never threatened besting rest. RAYWICK unhurried from the gate, saved ground to mid turn, angled out top of the lane, was outfinished vying for a minor award. BRITELUCK raced evenly and a little off the rail towards the rear, mildly bid mid turn, came four wide into the lane, lacked needed surge. SMARTY MOUTH lacked speed racing mid track throughout, gave way finishing well beaten. SUNSATONAL raced up close for the opening half mile, retreated from mid turn, stopped in the lane finishing spent.
