Footnotes

THE ALCOVA KID well rated early rallied on the far turn surging to wrest the lead in the four path upper stretch, dug in to outside pressure holding up late. BROKE BY NOON unhurried early rallied four deep on the far turn, challenged from mid track in upper stretch bearing down to the end. WILD PROOF sent clear set a modest pace maintaining a short lead through the far turn, hooked along the inside upper stretch would cede to pressure. CASTLE QUARTER tracked evenly through the far turn, looming in the four path down the stretch lacked a closing surge. ROBYN IT slow early circled six wide in upper stretch coming on to finish well. MONTE BAJO (FR) stalked the pace through the far turn chasing along the inside to upper stretch, extended there would weaken in the two path. CAPTAIN KYLE unhurried early gave a mild move on the far turn then leveled off while four wide in upper stretch. HIGHLAND CAT raced evenly off the pace proving no menace. STREATERVILLE wide early was never involved. COLONIAL LEGACY chased the pace through the backside then folded up on the far turn, was eased to the wire.
