Footnotes

LILLIE O'HAIR stalked early on, bid three to four wide entering the stretch, dueled with MADAME G. G. to the wire, inched clear late under a stiff drive. MADAME G G hustled early, set a pressured pace throughout, dug in once headed by the winner turning for home, matched strides to deep stretch, was outgamed at the wire missing in a very hard try. FOXY FRAULINE rated from the start, asked coming to the quarter pole, angled five wide into the lane, was put to severe left handed stick, was always gaining on top pair coming to the wire, missed in a willing effort. PRIZE FEVER broke out brushing ONE OH FIVE leaving the gate taking up briefly, trailed to top of the lane, angled out six wide mid stretch, responded to strong handling narrowing the gap late but was no real threat. ONE OH FIVE was hard used gunning for the early lead, battled to top of the lane, gave way inside the eighth pole, used up.
