Footnotes

WARRIOR'S HIT away slowly stayed back to the half, began to pick it up near the quarter pole circling out to upper stretch, took aim near mid track surging five then six wide getting up in the final strides. BARCLAYS BOY sent clear set the pace racing in the four path to the far turn, widened a bit there then dug in near mid track in upper stretch extending late to outside pressure ceding in the final yards. STRONG BRUSH stalked the pace laying close up through the backside chasing on the far turn, came between horses down the lane extending near mid track giving all to the end. TAYLORS POINT unhurried early was roused making little headway on the far turn, swung to the seven path in upper stretch raced widest of all finding no late surge. SIXTY FORTY raced evenly throughout saving ground to upper stretch holding position there. HOME ALARM dropping back early was never involved. MARLETTE failed to respond. MAGIC BOB brushed at the break chased to the half then gave way along the inside on the far turn.
