Footnotes

SUBBOO broke alertly, held a slim lead racing four wide, dueled outside of J JACQUELINE from the quarter pole, these two hooked up going head to head from the eighth pole, won the head bob on the wire being fully extended. J JACQUELINE sent hard, dueled racing along the rail from the start, matched strides with the winner from upper stretch, lost the nod on the wire, proved a stubborn second best. GOLDEN GODDESS rated early on, asked at the quarter pole, surged between rivals deep stretch, gained show position in willing effort. BANK TASK broke wit the pace leaving the gate, vied racing between foes going down the backside, was taken back slightly to stalk on the turn, bid three to four wide entering the stretch, almost drew even mid stretch, was out finished late. BIG MEADOW well placed early, rallied along the rail to a menacing position at the eighth pole, tired late despite being under a severe drive. SCALD was outrun early, raced wide down the backside, put to a stiff drive top of the stretch, beat weary foes late, no factor. BURNT BUSH raced evenly and off the rail, tired in the stretch, no factor. FATOUMA was a bit rank shortly after the start, angled to the rail, urged early, gave no response, tired in the stretch.
