Footnotes

FIRE LINE broke alertly, set all the pace racing three to four wide throughout, increased margin being kept to task to the finish. MARQUET WIN stalked the winner down the backside, lost a bit of ground swinging six wide entering the stretch, never menaced the winner but gamely gained the place position. NOT HIS FAULT lacked speed, traveled well off the rail, came seven wide into the stretch, finished willingly getting the show position in deep stretch. ANNIEO STREET stumbled and then was soundly bumped by RUNICK leaving the gate, hustled up to track the pace, asked mid turn, rallied to loom top of the stretch, failed to sustain bid and flattened out late. CHAT TRUCE showed good speed, stalked the winner to mid turn, began to weaken in upper stretch, bested rest. RUNICK veered in sharply jamming ANNIEO STREET who in turn leaned in to bump HIS BIGGEST FAN, rider lost irons, never factored. HIS BIGGEST FAN was bumped at the break in a chain reaction caused by RUNICK who veered in sharply, was quickly outrun, never involved.
