Footnotes

MAID OF HEAVEN was patiently handled in the early going racing off the rail, made a quick three wide move leaving the far turn, vied in a three way battle to the quarter pole, drew off from mid stretch, won easily being ridden out. SHARP BOURBON pressed for the lead running three to four wide down the backside, vied mid turn running between foes, proved no match for the winner in the final furlong, dug in late to gamely save second place. EMONA hustled leaving the gate, set a pressured pace traveling along the rail, dueled for six furlongs, began to tire mid stretch, was edged out of second place but held gamely saving third place. NEED TO KNOW was forwardly placed tracking a hot pace along the rail, could not keep pace entering the stretch, angled four wide mid stretch, surged on a pair of tiring duelers but needed more late missing a minor award. BELLA FIORE stalked then chased to midway on the second turn, gave way top of the stretch. CATCH MY EYE was outrun early racing mid track, made a brief bid following the winner leaving the far turn but soon flattened out top of the stretch, gave way mid stretch finishing spent.
