Footnotes

FLYING POSSE hustled from the gate, set a pressured pace to top of the stretch, traveled in the two path repulsing challengers in upper stretch, drew off from the eighth pole to win convincingly and was in hand coming to the wire. BADGE MASTER was a step slow into stride, angled to the rail saving ground throughout, cut the corner entering the stretch, was under strong left handed stick and finished willingly to secure the place position. CAL CORREDOR was never far off the pace, made a bold three to four wide move mid turn, raced abreast rivals at the quarter pole vying for the lead, failed to sustain move and leveled off mid stretch being outfinished for second place. BAD RAD pressed the winner to mid turn, battled in a three way duel at the quarter pole racing between foes, began to weaken at the eighth pole, no late threat. MR GUES raced mid track throughout never menacing, gave way at the quarter pole finishing well beaten. SUDDEN SURGE lagged far off the pace, never involved.
