Footnotes

SEVENTEEN AND ONE was a bit in tight going into the first turn running between foes, waited briefly then angled to mid track entering the backside, sat patient stalking ZAMPANO, urged mid turn and drove by at the quarter pole, remained off the rail turning for home, widened easily being ridden out as much the best. FASHION SEA rated early racing in the second flight at mid track, rallied mid turn racing in the four path, was hard ridden in the stretch to just get up late grabbing second place. ZAMPANO hustled from the gate, cleared early and angled towards the inside, headed by the winner leaving the far turn, had little left top of the lane, dug in fighting for second place but was outgamed in last strides. SIXTY FORTY tracked early on, put to a drive from mid turn, lacked response never threatening. TRUE MARCO varied little running in the second flight, no factor. STRONG BRUSH reared as the gate opened, moved out wide for the run down the backstretch, bid in tandem mid turn, soon flattened out in upper stretch. SILENT BREEZE was always outrun, never involved. STREET MUSIC hustled racing up close to the half, began to fade at the three eighths pole finishing well beaten.
