Footnotes

FRANKIE R'S WINNER alert from the gate, was measured abreast RAN SOUTH into the turn, established command there opening up into stretch, remained under a hand ride holding clear. SECRET ROMEO void early foot, responded nearing the 1/4 pole, came 5 wide into the stretch, finished a strong second. CAREY'S GOLD crowded by a rushing MAYOR STEVE shortly after the start, taken off the rail raced 4 wide into the turn, had a mild rally under a drive to outbid others. WILD LIES hustled close in the early going, pursued 3 wide to the 1/4 pole, weakened under the whip down the lane. ADMIRAL ALBERT outrun early, varied little to the stretch proving no factor. D. J. TYLER hard ridden to early contention, pursued 4 wide through the turn, had enough entering the lane and dropped off. RAN SOUTH used early to contest on the inside of FRANKIE R'S WINNER, wavered when reaching mid turn and retreated on the inside. MAYOR STEVE hesitated breaking late, rushed all out up the inside, empty when reaching the 1/4 pole giving way.
