Footnotes

EL DIABLO tracked the pace to the quarter pole, came four wide entering the stretch, dueled with AUSTIN H. to mid stretch, drew off late being ridden out. AUSTIN H. rushed between rivals to vie for the lead down the backside, edged clear at the quarter pole but was soon headed by the winner, battled gamely to mid stretch, proved no match late but held well late saving second place. VITA DESIDERATA was urged shortly after the start but failed to respond traveling in the second flight, roused again past the quarter pole, angled to the three path upper stretch, improved placing but was no real threat. DEPUTY OOPS veered in at the start, dueled abreast down the backside racing three wide, fought hard to top of the lane racing between foes, drifted wide mid stretch while tiring, no late factor. FAST FLING well placed early tracking a hotly contested pace, swung five wide entering the stretch mounting rally, lacked surge and flattened out inside the eighth pole. PRIME REWARD lacked speed racing wide down the backside, offered little. EMBUR'S MADURO brushed with SUPRISE MISSILE at the start, quickly rushed up along the rail to duel for the lead in a three way battle, vied to the quarter pole, began to drop off mid stretch, used up. SURPRISE MISSILE was off a step slow and broke inward brushing with EMBUR'S MADURO, was soon outrun, lagged throughout showing little.
