Footnotes

ON TOUR hustled from the gate, dueled to mid turn racing between rivals, went head to head with GENERAL STAFF from the quarter pole to the wire as these two drew off from the field at the three sixteenths, maintained a slight edge to the wire and prevailed being fully extended. GENERAL STAFF sent hard vying for the lead from the start, dueled racing along the rail from the quarter pole to the finish line, was out nodded missing in a very hard effort. EUROVALENTINO settled in the second flight traveling mid track, angled to the five path upper stretch, surged belatedly winning the battle for third place. WORTH A PUNT was hard ridden shortly after the start but lacked early foot, came four wide into the lane mounting rally, was edged out of third place in last jumps needing more late. BAKERS WOODS trailed early racing mid track, surged belatedly missing a minor award. VALID VENTURE was a step slow leaving the gate, steadily advanced from mid turn, came six wide into the stretch, leveled off needing more late. LINEAR MOTION lacked speed racing along the rail throughout, failed to menace. TONY LANTANA showed good early speed dueling for the lead, dropped off entering the stretch, used up. PRONTO CABALLO chased around the turn running three to four wide, gave way inside the eighth pole. BELIEVE DAT flashed brief foot, gave way mid turn.
