Footnotes

CHA CHA FOR NOW well handled early, sat patient tracking a pair of duelers to the quarter pole, bid three wide top of the lane raced abreast foes from the eighth pole, slowly edged clear nearing the wire gaining a hard fought victory. NAT'S SAPHIRA hustled to the front, felt pressure from HALLS ROAD soon after the start, kept that rival at bay holding a slight lead, was headed by CHA CHA FOR NOW turning for home, battled from upper stretch racing between foes, ceded grudgingly coming to the wire missing in a very game effort. HALLS ROAD pressed the runner up from the start, was pinned down along the rail throughout, vied in a three way battle mid stretch, was outfinished late and settled for third place. BURL'S JUNIANA lacked speed, made a belated gain running along the inside in deep stretch but was no real threat. DEBS PRETTYGIRL settled along the rail racing mid pack, angled out top of the lane under a drive, lacked needed surge. MAUMENEE raced between foes going down the backside, swung out five wide upper stretch under a drive, failed to respond. EXTRA DIVIDEND rushed a mild bid mid turn racing three to four wide, failed to sustain move and flattened out upper stretch. PRIZE FEVER was quickly outrun, raced wide throughout.
