Footnotes

UNSTOPPABLE MICK was patiently ridden traveling in the second flight running along the inside, made a steady advance mid turn, angled out top of the lane, split foes at the eighth pole vying for the lead, surged clear late and won going away under strong handling. SENOR RUTLEDGE set a nicely rated pace running in the two path, came out a bit wider in upper stretch, engaged by UNSTOPPABLE MICK in mid stretch, fought willingly but proved no match late, saved second place in a hard effort. BEAR IS CONFIRMED stalked to the half racing mid track, dropped off on the bend, angled to the rail entering the stretch, responded gamely to pressure coming again in deep stretch getting the nod for third place. CHIEF INSPECTOR stalked the runner up from the start, held a menacing position at the quarter pole, loomed to deep stretch, leveled off being outfinished for a minor award. DANCE WORLD settled in the second flight traveling mid track, put to a drive leaving the quarter pole, swung out seven wide top of the lane, lacked needed kick never threatening while besting rest. RAMBLIN MIKE stalked racing along the inside to the far turn, angled out giving chase turning for home, lacked bid tiring in the drive. ROMAN SUR raced five wide into the first turn, remained mid track throughout, weakened leaving the quarter pole. VANEASTO was quickly outrun racing wide throughout. HARLAN RUSH lacked speed racing in the second flight, angled out six wide upper stretch, failed to factor. HYRACOTHERIUM made a steady retreat leaving the far turn, offered little.
