Footnotes

LADY VAN patiently ridden to the far turn, urged coming to the three eighths pole, swung out five wide into the lane, drew even inside the eighth pole vying in a four way battle, slowly inched clear and prevailed under strong handling. PUZZLE DREAM tracked to the far turn racing along the inside, angled out three wide top of the lane, dueled running between foes in mid stretch, came out slightly at that point crowding ABELIA briefly, continued on fighting for the lead, was put nodded by the winner just missing in a hard effort. DYNABOX set all the pace running in the two path, opened up at the half, was collared inside the furlong marker, battled to the wire but ceded grudgingly to settle for third place. ABELIA stalked a loose leader early on, angled four wide into the lane, vied briefly running between rivals, was in close losing position in mid stretch, weakened to the finish line. CELEBRATING SARAH settled in the second flight, failed to respond when roused, never threatened. LITTLE LIDO hustled racing up close briefly, retreated form the far turn, no factor. ROSEENA was outrun early racing wide down the backstretch.
