Footnotes

A TOUCH OF HUMOR well handled saving ground while trailing around the turn, rallied along the rail in mid stretch, drew clear late winning under a drive to the finish. ALL BETS ARE OFF settled in the second flight saving ground, angled out turning for home, split foes in mid stretch, closed willingly proving second best. SWEET BABY JEEPERS stalked around the turn, gave chase from upper stretch, moved out five wide at the eighth pole, secured the show position late under urging. PASS ME A DRINK was rushed soon after the start vying for the lead, edged clear at the quarter pole, raced in the two path in the stretch run, faltered late being outfinished for a minor award. SEA WHY sent hard holding a slight early lead, battled to the quarter pole, traveled in the three path from upper stretch, gave way late, used up. TOES ON THE CURB retreated from mid turn running mid track, trailed into the stretch, never menaced.
