Footnotes

KING'S CORONATION rated just off the pace inside, was boxed in through the final turn, rallied between rivals midstretch and dueled clear from there. BABEL was shuffled back at the break, settled in stride toward the rail, made his bid leaving the quarter pole, came out a bit late and was just up for place. PROFESSOR BIGGS rated with the pace three deep, contested a short lead through the final turn, continued that momentum to midstretch but weakened at the sixteenth pole. JACKSON RUN, unhurried outside, bid widest on the final turn and finished evenly. BANSHEE BRAD stayed with the pace inside, led between calls at two different points then weakened the final sixteenth. SLIDING HOME broke out steadying, rated off the pace toward mid track, split horses midstretch then flattened stride. NOOLIGAN rated off the pace outside, drew close six wide on the final turn, was brushed steadying midstretch and leveled off from there. FOREVERNESS was forced out at the start, rated off the pace off the rail, blocked through the final turn then empty through the stretch. EVIL MINISTER set the early pace two deep, dropped back steadying from between horses nearing the quarter pole and gave way from there.
