Footnotes

MARCH MAGIC came out slightly entering the clubhouse turn and between rivals into the backstretch, raced outside of SHINE AGAIN into the far turn, moved to the lead nearing the quarter pole then drove clear late under left handed pressure. VIVID SUNSET was moving her head just prior to the start to be away slowly at the break, raced five deep briefly into the first turn, raced close up then finished well between rivals and earned the place. SHINE AGAIN angled over early while clear, saved ground while rated on the pace, responded when headed then weakened in the drive. WITTENBERG stumbled after clipping heels when squeezed back entering the clubhouse turn, regrouped and lodged a bid outside on the final bend then lacked the needed late response. HEMLINE was steadied trying to avoid a fallen rider on the backstretch, raced out in the strip turning for home and lacked a rally. RESORT came in some while between rivals entering the clubhouse turn, retired after a half then was not urged late. LICENSE FEE between rivals early, was three deep on the backstretch when she broke down and fell unseating the rider. The stewards posted the inquiry sign concerning the run into the clubhouse turn and also the incident on the backstretch but no change was made.
