FLAME CATCHER steadied into the opening turn, was kept just off the pace in the four path, bid through the final turn, closed mildly then leveled off. SONIA'S SONATA was roughed lacking room through the opening turn, rated off the pace inside, was steadied on the rail entering the final turn, eased out nearing the quarter pole when making her bid and finished evenly. FORWARD IMPACT rated just off the pace toward the inside and ran evenly through the stretch. SWEEPING ON BYE showed no speed outside and offered no rally. PLUME stayed with the early pace five wide, assumed the lead on the backstretch, was prompted nearing the final turn then faded off the rail.
