Footnotes

DANCE MASTER was hustled early pressuring the pace, edged clear through the turn then widened his lead through the stretch under steady urging. MAD RIVER lunged then brushed the gate at the break, raced well back saving ground then had a useful bid near the rail through the stretch. D'PART was urged along widest, dropped back through the turn then made up lost ground through the stretch although flattening out late. IRON MERIDIAN chased the leaders while near the rail early, was then empty in the drive. GET MY GLITTER chased the pace on the outside, remained close to the upperstretch then flattened stride. FIELD OF BEAUTY was rushed up for the early lead, dropped back a notch through the turn then tired from the eighth pole.
