Footnotes

SPARKLING PINK rated close about the four path, was pressured five wide leaving the quarter pole, reached contention dueling the final sixteenth and inched ahead toward the wire. MORE THAN PRETTY pressured a fast pace two deep, took over a slim advantage into the turn, continued on gamely through the stretch to recover a late lead then grudgingly yielded with a sixteenth to go. GOOD CONDUCT chased the pace toward mid track, saved ground through the turn, dueled close to midstretch but was outfinished from the sixteenth pole. MICKEES TORNADO rated close to the early pace three deep, came four wide through the turn, dueled to a short brief lead in midstretch then relented the final sixteenth. PEACH FLAMBE steadied leaving the gate, picked up the chase outside, saved ground mid track on the turn, eased back out into the lane and finished evenly. THOSE SHOES chased the pace toward the inside, steadied angling outward leaving the quarter pole and finished evenly. AUNT HENNY rated off the pace and off the rail, gave chase into the turn, lacked room entering the stretch and leveled off from there. LITTLE MISS ZIP rated a fast pressured pace just off the rail, gave chase into the turn then weakened toward the eighth pole.
