Footnotes

FLEETING FORTUNE was two wide early, not far off the pace, was close up in the backstretch, made a quick three wide move around the half and cleared before the head of the stretch and held it to the wire. HOMBRE HUGHES raced from the rail, dueled with MY FRIEND TOME early, took the led in the backstretch, lost the lead before the head of the stretch to FLEETING FORTUNE and was the best of rest. GABE'S PRIDE saved ground, raced close, chased the field, was closing in but was definitely third best. OFFICER JONES trailed, was well back, slowly gained in the last turn and finished well. UP THE TRACK JACK was three wide in the first turn, followed the field and showed no gain in the stretch. MY FRIEND TOM dueled from the outside with HOMBRE HUGHES early then took back to stalk while wide, weakened around the half and faded.
