Footnotes

TAYLOR'S TALE was three wide mid pack, then went on the two path, not far off the pace, moved up the rail, then swung four wide to press for the front and cleared at the head of the stretch. REGAL ROSETTI took back early, stayed on the rail, was well back off the pace, gained on the rail in the last turn, went five wide at the head of the stretch and was second best. OFFICER JONES trailed early, stayed near the back, slowly gained in the last turn and finished well. FIVEPINS raced from the rail, not far off the pace, went up the rail in the backstretch to closed ground, had no room at the head of the stretch found room to late. SMART CALL was three wide early, stayed three wide and close, was four wide in the second turn, up tight after the half, launched a bid but hung in the stretch drive. YO CLAUDIO stalked, dueled wide, pressed the lead wide then weakened mid stretch. DIXIE MOUNTAIN led, dueled from the inside, led at the half, led heading to the stretch but was collared mid stretch. UNWAVERING ROAR went the two path, stayed close, was three wide in the second turn then tired after the three quarters. ARGENTUNE stayed near the back, then trailed and was bothered by the loose horse. THE CON IS SMILES lost rider out of the gate.
