Footnotes

KING KONA led early, opened up, bore out very wide last turn heading to the stretch but came back to win. CISCO KID was three wide early, chased the field, stayed in behind the leader, closed ground, led mid stretch due to drifting horse but was caught late stretch for the win. LUCKY PAL was away alertly, four wide early, edged over to save ground and followed, slow gain late backstretch but lost ground in the stretch. FLATTERING LIFE chased the field, stayed even in the backstretch and passed a tiring rival. RED INVADER took the two path, saved ground in the backstretch, well back from the lead, closed some ground but then tired in the last turn. NORTHERN LIGHTS saved ground, trailed, was well off the pace and never really threatened.
