Footnotes

SPOTSGONE broke sharp, got clear before a quarter, relaxed in the run up the backstretch, continued to show the way into the stretch by daylight, enough left to hold sway final strides. JONESBORO settled off the pace, asked for some run when within striking distance late in the second turn, roused, drifted late, slowly gaining. GOULDINGS GREEN off the pace, angled out for the drive, finished willingly while widest of the first group. BETA CAPO never far back, closest to the winner turning for home, was weakening slightly when put in tight by a drifting runner up in the late going, continued to fall back. PROM SHOES void of speed, moved out to be five wide into the lane, never dangerous. MOYER'S POND saved ground while well off the pace, improved along the inside, finished up evenly. RICHLAND CREEK lacked a rally. GOT THE LAST LAUGH steadily retreated. FINANCE MINISTER faded off the inside.
