Footnotes

KATE'S MAIN MAN away best of all, got clear under a relaxed hold before a quarter, continued under kind handling in the run up the backstretch through some soft fractions, larger lead when straightened for home, enough left to hold the runner up safe in the late going. WIN WILLY devoid of early foot, saved ground while remaining unhurried, continued inside into the lane, roused, finished willingly to be gaining on the winner in a gallant effort. STACHYS allowed the pace to go early while along the inside, continued inside, brief steady midway on the final turn, moved out a bit for the drive, caught late for the place. SKY'S THE LIMIT away in good order, a bit rank while steering off the inside into the first turn, stalked the pace off rail, came up empty for the drive. NORTHERN GIANT settled, evenly paced in the three path, lacked a late kick. CRYPTOLIGHT was never a threat while out in the strip.
