LOVE ON A WIRE was slow early while out from the rail, began a rally between horses in early stretch, angled out in late stretch and finished best. SPIKEAVELLIAN stayed out from the rail while leading the chase, offered a mild rally into the stretch then was hanging when shut off in midstretch. WEST LIDO advanced along the rail into the stretch then continued evenly. FORT SEATTLE raced two wide around the final turn and made up some ground outside. RIP RAP was shut off nearing the first turn then was outrun three wide. PARADE FOR PEACE was steadied in tight entering the first turn, raced five wide around the final turn and lacked a rally. GOING FOR GOLD was no factor. SNUCKINTHEFOREST wasn't far back outside early, was caught four wide around the final turn and stopped.
