Footnotes

SPANISH OFFICER had position two wide then rallied outside through the lane and was up late. ED EARL took command at once, drew clear early on the turn, widened into the final furlong but couldn't last. SOLD MY SOUL broke in the air then was bumped soundly soon after, trailed early while two wide and found best stride too late. RED ARMY was sent up inside to press the early pace then tired. FORT MIFFLIN ducked in sharply at the break then failed to menace. SERGEANT SKI was close up outside early then stopped.
