IRISH DIVA was unhurried inside early, began a run into the far turn, came out three wide nearing the stretch, closed outside through the lane and was going away at the end. UTTER PLEASURE was never far back, advanced between rivals on the backstretch, took over two wide just before three quarters, edged clear but couldn't last. TRUSTEN was unhurried early, rallied wide around the final turn to vie outside the winner but lacked a closing response. LUCREZIA was shuffled back after the break, began a run inside on the backstretch, steadied in tight nearing the far turn, came out three wide for room but lacked a closing rally. IN SECONDS went in the air at the break, raced wide around the final turn and made up some ground through the lane. ROSE OF GERI was slow to settle then made up ground between rivals. A JET'S GONE WEST made up some ground outside through the lane. LADY'S TOWN was carried out while showing speed into the first turn, remained prominent for over six furlongs then stopped. RANSOM DUE angled to the inside with command shortly after the break then stopped. BARBIE JO JO stopped. CATCH THE KITTY was finished early.
