Footnotes

SILVER SILENCE showed the way racing removed from the inside rail, shook loose leaving the turn and proved best under steady handling. FINAL DISPERSAL was steadied lightly at the start then advanced between rivals leaving the turn to gain second. WAR WOMAN moved up along the inside leaving the turn then lacked a further bid. DANDY DULCE raced within striking distance and could make up little in the drive. COURT SENSE prompted the early pace and weakened. FLYING TO FINISH pressed the early pace and tired.
