Footnotes

CORCHO quickly took over to rate the pace about the five path, saved some ground through the turn, was urged away into the stretch, pressured the final furlong and maintained with willing response. ENDOFCONVERSATION was boxed at the heels of Caldron early, lacked room through the turn, eased to the outside midstretch and finished well to get place. WAKING UP chased the pace about the four path, held aim through the turn, reached place a furlong away then outfinished for that position the final strides. CALDRON chased the pace from the inside, had aim at the top of the stretch though flattened stride from there. BOY G. chased the pace about the three path, angled widest near the quarter pole and had nothing further in the stretch. RUN FAT BOY RUN gave chase from the outside though never factored.
