Footnotes

D' WILD AFFAIR rated off the pace inside, took a breather through the turn, angled four wide leaving the quarter pole and rallied for the lead in final strides. JUST A TOUCH pressed the pace about the three path, dueled with a slim lead through the turn, moved clear into the lane then outfinished the final strides. DIGITAL DREAMS came away slowly and awkwardly, immediately picked up the chase off the rail, angled out at the quarter pole, finished strong widest and was probably best here. SERGEANT KEITH settled off the pace and off the rail, eased out at the head of the lane and close steadily to deep stretch before leveling off. MY SON M J advanced toward contention about the three path on the backstretch, had aim at the top of the stretch then flattened stride from the eighth pole. CALL YOU RAISE YOU had no speed inside. EON set a pressured pace off the rail, contested the turn then gave way toward the eighth pole.
