Footnotes

DOBRA settled off the pace about the three path, was urged to the lead just inside the five sixteenths pole, dug in under steady encouragement from there and lasted well. HABBY QUATORZE angled over to settle unhurriedly two deep nearing the turn, started a drive toward the quarter pole and finished well while dueling for place. SUBDUE moved to the lead past the thirteen sixteenths pole, prompted to maintain the edge off the rail through the backstretch, overcome near the five sixteenths pole, gave chase from there but drifted outward and was outfinished in the duel for place. DAZZLING DEBORAH, off the pace outside, moved to nearly even terms while six wide through the turn then leveled off in the stretch. VUTZ UP DOC, off the pace inside, had no rally. MISSBAUER stalked the pace about the four path, moved to a slim brief lead approaching the five sixteenths pole then weakened from the top of the stretch.
