ONLY ME rated off the pace two deep, improved her position three wide on the turn, dug in for the lead just inside the eighth pole and lasted well with steady handling. SILENT STALK stalked the pace two deep, took a slim advantage near the five sixteenths pole then dueled inside the winner past the eighth pole before grudgingly ceding. ENJOY THE WIN chased the pace outside, came through the turn six wide and finished evenly. MISS FLEETFOOT chased the early pace inside, lacked room at the heels of the waning Lutz through the turn, eased out for a clearing into the stretch to make a mild bid then leveled off beyond the eighth pole. MIRIAM'S STAR chased the pace toward mid track, moved to nearly even terms four wide at the quarter pole then weakened in the stretch. LUTZ maintained a slim advantage inside to the five sixteenths pole then remained close through the upper stretch before weakening. GRACEE BABE was no factor.
