Footnotes

SING MY SONG rated off the pace toward mid track, made a four wide bid nearing the three eighths pole, dueled for control in the upper stretch and dug in under steady handling to maintain. FAIRLY ROYAL settled off the pace about the four path, eased six wide making a bid toward the quarter pole, dueled for place from midstretch and was gaining on the winner approaching the wire. ORBISTON PARVA saved ground off the pace, closed toward contention approaching the final turn, had aim two deep while between horses at the quarter pole, was forced inward at the top of the stretch then outfinished in the duel for place. GALICISTA (ARG) ran through the opening turn in the six path, moved to the lead near the five eighths pole, contested for control while losing ground on the final turn then weakened into the stretch. OUR MISS BROOKS came through the first turn in the seven path, took a slim lead nearing the three quarter pole, stalked the pace between horses on the backstretch, contested the final turn three wide, came in a path entering the stretch and weakened from there. TEREVAKA rated a clear lead inside the first turn, stalked the pace through the backstretch, was pinched back entering the stretch and gave way. TEMPESTA TEMPO steadied at the heels of the drifting Julie's Cadice while five wide into the opening turn and outrun thereafter. JULIE'S CADICE drifted out a path into the first turn and was through early.
