Footnotes

GOLDDIGGER'S BOY prompted outside, took the lead on the final turn, was clear in mid stretch and held sway under strong handling. GRUNWALD was between rivals early racing under steadying restraint, moved out five wide and challenged but then had hung. HIGH ON CANDY was between foes and just off the pace, eased out four wide on the final turn and fought gamely. TUJOES saved ground dueling for the lead, weakened slightly. ROUND ABOUT was outside and just off the pace, gave way. PROUD RULER vied for command just off the rail and faded. ANDREW L was rank while between rivals early, tired. KETAN broke slowly and failed to menace.
