Footnotes

PLUS ONE pressed the pace to the quarter pole, eased to the outside of the drifting runner-up entering the stretch, dueled clear of that one past the eighth pole then widened under steady handling. HANNAH'S HOLIDAY set a pressured pace inside, lost ground near the quarter pole, dueled close through the upper stretch, yielded to the winner a furlong out but held on well for place. SWEET AND LOWDOWN chased the early pace from the inside, eased out in the upper stretch and finished evenly. CONCEPT gave close early chase from the inside then faded toward the turn. SHE'S PARADISE and LOTTA LOVIN were outrun. CRUISEN ALONG, bumped at the start, displayed no speed. IN DY RITZ showed no speed outside. SWEET DE BARAN broke inward making contact with Cruisen Along and quickly lost contact.
