Footnotes

HAPPY WAC always within striking distance of the leader, saved ground on the turn, angled out for the drive and prevailed under steady right hand urging. CORSICA broke alertly, sprinted away to a clear lead, responded well when challenged by the winner but tired late to be an easy second best. VIOLA raced into a perfect stalking position two wide on the turn, but lacked a response for the drive. DIXIE SHEA forced five wide in the turn, raced evenly to the wire. LITTLE B ROSSON four wide between horses through the turn, had no rally in the lane. DEVIL'S LIL BIT pressed the early pace and flattened out. DIJARVO (GB) was never a threat.
