Footnotes

RADICCHIO broke sharply, raced away to an open lead, was well rated through the turn and held well in a long drive under strong handling. BELMONT ROAD was placed inside for a ground saving stalking trip, angled out for the drive and closed willingly to just miss. STROKE made an early move through the field splitting horses, gained a striking position at the quarter pole and finished well coming up just short. SIR ZIP pressed the pace to the top of the stretch and weakened late in the drive. MR WEAVER chased the early pace, was forced to be wide in the turn and lacked a response in the stretch. SIDE PARTY RALPH went evenly, posing no threat. IT'S GOODTOBE DUKE raced wide early, dropped back steadily in turn and drifted out through the lane. KEPLER'S VISION broke slowly from the gate several lengths behind the field and never threatened. SHREKRETIARIAT was no factor.
