Footnotes

J. J'S JEWEL stalked the early pacesetters, circled three wide to take command in mid-stretch, and held well under strong handling. WHY WHY WONDER rated just off the pace along the rail, saved ground in the turn, commenced his stretch rally up the inside, was taken in hand to swing wide late in the drive, and was finishing well at the wire. BOOM BOOM CHA CHA pressed the leader to the the top of the stretch, briefly led between calls, weakened late in the stretch in a good effort. PRIVATE BET reserved off the pace, rallied well late in the stretch. SOUTHERN FLAIR broke a bit slow, found his best stride and raced evenly. HEY JUDY sprinted away to set the early fractions, led to the quarter pole and faltered in the drive. BERNSTEINS BELLE was no threat. STEEL BAY broke slowly from the gate and was no factor.
