Footnotes

CAJUN DUST stalked the pace, rallied four wide in the stretch, closed deternienly and wore down his rivals. ANOTHER GULCH bore in badly at the start causing a chain reaction of bumping, pressed the pace inside, lacked room mid stretch along the rail, altered course two wide, closed late splitting horses and was up for second. MILL POINT set the pace, dueled through the stretch and gave way grudgingly. JACOB'S FAN pressed the pace, drew even in mid stretch, then was outfinished. CHIEF TASHMO allowed to settle, rallied in the stretch and had a late gain. BLUERIBBONBREW broke a step slow, was bumped start at the start by ANOTHER GLUCH and was no threat. ADDICTED BAY contended, tired on the second turn. The stewards posed the inquiry sign and after viewing the tape disqualified ANOTHER GLUCH for inference with BLUERIBBONBREW at the start and placed him sixth.
