Footnotes

E. Z. PATH easily cleared off, set a quick pace in the four path, drifted out towards the outer rail despite right handed urging and held firm. BELLAGIO broke inward and bumped with TIPSY SAINT, was taken to rate while saving ground, swung out to about the five path in upper stretch, made a run to the inside of the winner leaving the sixteenth marker but was turned away. OFFICIOUS, under rating four wide early, came under pressure mid turn, made a mild run past the eighth pole then flattened out. ISSUES AND ANSWERS, sluggish from the gate, lagged back off the rail, altered to the rail near the sixteenth marker and had some belated interest. BELLISSIMA LUNA stalked the winner two wide and came up empty. SPANISH OFFICER, three to four wide, had no rally. TIPSY SAINT, bumped at the break, was outrun. SUN SONG saved ground chasing the pace, remained in range to about the eighth pole then weakened.
