Footnotes

HUDSON STEELE rated kindly off the rail and within range, responded when given his cue approaching the quarter pole, accelerated three wide into the lane, forged clear under right handed pressure in mid stretch then steadily widened while kept to his business the final fifty yards. MONUMENT HILL saved ground under rating, angled out advancing near the quarter pole, eased out wider in upper stretch, loomed a solid presence a furlong out, failed to match strides from there but did continued on willingly to save the place. EL COMMODORE rated nicely while setting the pace inside, edged away a bit leaving the far turn, relinquished command in upper stretch then stayed on well while narrowly missing second. HUMBLE AND HUNGRY, under snug rating between rivals around the far turn, angled out to come four wide for the drive and finished with decent energy. PARIS VEGAS, bumped at the break, settled off the pace, angled four wide making some headway near the quarter pole, shifted in past the three sixteenths marker then lacked the needed finish. SLEEPLESS KNIGHT came in at the break bumping POCKET PATCH, rated in mid pack, gained ground leaving the three eighths pole, angled wide for the drive but lacked a stretch response. CONCEALED IDENTITY saved ground while settling off the early pace, came under pressure leaving the three eighths pole but failed to respond. POCKET PATCH, bumped and in close soon after the break, lost ground four to five wide and failed to menace. NICANOR stalked the pace outside EL COMMODORE, was pushed along around the final turn, failed to keep pace into the stretch and retreated. MONZON wide, dropped back.
