Footnotes

DAREN , patiently rated behind the duel, swung to the four path when commencing his rally leaving the far turn, swept to command under brisk urging then drew away. BRAND NEW MOVES stalked the duel, moved up three wide leaving the far turn, gained a short lead in upper stretch then was no match for the winner. KING SIMBA lacked speed, entered the stretch in the three path, was no threat to the winner and passed tired foes. FLYING APTITUDE saved ground around the first turn, floated five wide entering the stretch and was outrun. MR. JIGGLES disputed the pace two wide and gave way in midstretch. IN MY CROSSHAIRS , steadied when pinched back approaching the first turn, saved ground and was outrun. DILLONBEGON saved ground, disputed the pace and faltered.
