Footnotes

IN LINGERIE stumbled at the break, recovered and moved towards contention approaching the first turn, was taken out for clear sailing leaving the seven eighths pole, made steady progress five wide into the far turn while within herself, dropped in a bit past the three eighths pole and ranged up four wide to challenge into the stretch, dueled on a slim lead a furlong out, edged clear inside the sixteenth marker and held sway under left handed encouragement. DISPOSABLEPLEASURE steadied back from between rivals nearing the wire the first time, quickly gained along the rail near the half mile marker, chased the leader under urging into the lane, steadied off the heels of a tiring MAMMA KIMBO inside the three sixteenths marker, altered out and finished willingly while on her left lead. WILDCAT'S SMILE , in range while three to four wide, moved closer into the far turn, challenged between rivals into the stretch, dueled on near even terms approaching the eighth pole, shifted in a bit and gave way. MAMMA KIMBO sputtered clear soon after the break while kept removed from the inside, dropped in some and set the pace in the two path, was nudged along exiting the far turn, was asked for her best when collared into the stretch, drifted in towards the rail while dueling past the three sixteenths pole then surrendered through the final eighth. GLINDA THE GOOD stalked the pace off the rail, advanced between fillies nearing the far turn, gave futile chase to the quarter pole then gave way. WELCOME GUEST gained a stalking position into the first turn, stalked the leader to the far turn, failed to respond when called upon and dropped back between rivals. ZUCCHINI FLOWER failed to menace. PLUM , off the inside in mid pack while not far back, came under strong pressure past the half mile pole and retreated. OAKS LILY was through after a half mile.
